JUDGING CONVENOR'S REPORT

On the recommendation of the competition convenors and in the interests of transparency and consistency of marking, a review of the targets from the recently completed 20m bench rest pennant was undertaken.

I have reviewed all targets from the teams in first and second place in each section and a selection of the targets from each of the remaining teams.

In general the scoring is consistent across the whole of the sample but there are areas of concern. In many cases there is not enough use of the gauge, and in a number of cases where the gauge has been used the correct notations procedures have not been followed.

All gauged shots must be indicated as IN or OUT and signed with the initials of the scorer/s.

There were also a small number of shots where the incorrect score was written, nines written as eights and eights written as nines etc, and some arithmetic errors in the totals. These arithmetical errors did not affect the results published for those rounds.

Having placed a gauge into shots not correctly notated as gauged, I found that the main scoring issue appears to be in scoring the "X". This leads me to the view that many targets are being scored in poor light conditions. Targets should be scored in a well-lit area and gauged shots viewed from directly above.

Either a board with suitably placed holes or a foam pad should be used so the gauge can be freely inserted. I would also suggest that targets are scored by a team and not by one person, so close shots are confirmed by more than one person.

If anyone has concerns or would like guidance or assistance, please email me at judging@trv.org.au

VALE HERB AND TREVOR

It is with great sadness that we recently lost Herb Thomas and former TRV President, Trevor Drage, during 2025.

Both will be remembered with fondness for the great competitors they were, and simply great people to have around the range.

We're gonna miss you both.

MILDURA – FOR A GREAT WEEKEND AWAY

One of the great things about shooting is the ability to make an excuse to go away for a great weekend.

The North West Victorian Championships offers exactly that. The event, which will be shot at our Mildura range from June 5th – 7th 2026, offers the ability to explore a corner of the state many may never have been to.

The event is well run and in a family friendly atmosphere. This year's programme includes 20 & 50m Class 1 and 3 Benchrest and prone and air rifle, including supported and bench.

The Boathouse Cafe is one of plenty of eateries and cafes around town.

The event will also be a great opportunity to meet and compete against interstate competitors, given Mildura is “just over the border” from many of your colleagues in NSW and SA.

Entry details for the shoot will be made available on TRV's website during the year – but block this out in your diary now, so you can make a weekend away.

Don't forget to book any accommodation you might need well in advance.

Woodsies Gem Shop, which the family will enjoy!

You'll also have plenty of options on where to stay.

You can camp at, or take your caravan to, the range with toilets, showers and power facilities.

Or you stay at any of the many caravan parks and motels around Mildura.

While Melbourne will be dark and freezing in June, staying up north will mean you'll be enjoying lovely and sunny weather with cool (but not freezing) nights.

Don't forget the wineries while you're there!

TRV MARATHON MATCH

The TRV Marathon Match rounded up the end of 2025 with a bunch of great results.

The key results include:

- 1st in 50m benchrest - Dennis Peacock with a 1864.4.
- 1st in 50m Prone - Darcee Young with a 1804.8

The match was followed by the annual TRV Presentation Dinner - and again a big thank you to everyone who helped organise it, attended it - and congrats to the teams and individuals who took out the major prizes!

FILL YOUR DIARY BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

Now is the time to make sure you get all the TRV postal and online competitions and prize meetings in your diary for this year, so you don't miss out!

Not only can you do that by going to the calendar on the TRV website, but you can import ICS files containing all of this year's events if you use a computer-based diary!

That way, you won't miss anything.

Not sure how to do it? Ask your kids or other half.

STAY SAFE – GET YOUR DLEAD HERE!

TRV has 19 bottles of DLead available to buy.

DLead is a type of handwash designed to remove lead from your hands, which avoids the risk of lead then being ingested.

This is especially helpful for anyone who handles ammo (both competitors and visitors). It is especially important to use a product like this when cleaning bullet traps and cleaning downrange - because ordinary soap won't remove lead. That's why this is a 'must have' for every club!

The price is $9.00 (incl GST) ea, plus postage if required.

To get yours, email treasurer@trv.org.au and we'll organise delivery at a competition or via Australia Post.

VALE JOHN BAUDEWYN

Vale John Baudewyns

When it was time to have a sign at the Koorlong Range, John was again there helping to dig the holes and concrete in the sign.

John was a team competitor, for many years shooting in the TRV pennants as well as open shoots in both Victoria and South Australia.

He shared his years of shooting experience freely, often mentoring new members and was always up for a chat. He would attend the range on Sundays to help and chat, even when he was not as actively competing.

If any club member (or friend) was unwell, John would be the first to go and visit them and ensure they had everything they needed, or just cheer them up. He was selfless with this, even over the last few months as his own health deteriorated.

John will be missed as a club member and as a friend.

(supplied by MSBRC)

Also from Mildura is the sad news of the recent passing of John Baudewyns. John had a long battle with cancer and passed away peacefully just before the new year surrounded by his family.

Those of you who have attended the Mildura Championship shoot in the past would know that John would strictly and efficiently run range 5, the Class 3 Benchrest Range.

John was an active member of the club for approximately 40 years, holding many of the committee roles, including Secretary and Vice President. He also earned his well-deserved life membership of the Mildura Small Bore Rifle Club.

When the Red Cliffs Range became an annexe of the MSBRC, it was John who almost single handedly repainted the range from floor to ceiling.

The Mildura sign goes up

FINANCE SUB-COMMITTEE: EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

As the President noted in November's newsletter, the difficulties around WISCI show the need for TRV to reassess how we fund what we do. That's because for decades, we have been reliant on membership fees to fund everything we do - which makes it difficult to plan for major items such as new infrastructure.

In order to augment our current funding sources, we are setting up a dedicated Finance Sub-Committee to secure additional funding to support those things we want to see TRV do.

This will take pressure off relying on funding from our membership and instead seeking additional funding through grants, advertising partnerships, sponsorship arrangements and bequests from across the shooting sports community.

In order to progress this, we'd love to hear from you if you have relevant expertise. This includes expertise in business planning, accounting, advertising, sponsorships, legal, and fundraising. If you have the skills and dedication, please contact us at editor@trv.org.au.

UPCOMING EVENTS

MANAGING SCRAP METAL

- by Oakleigh Rifle Club

The Oakleigh Rifle Club was successful in obtaining a government grant in 2023 to manage its scrap metal.

A condition of the grant was that the club had to prepare and submit an Environmental Management Plan (EMP). An EMP is also required under the terms of the club's lease with VicTrack.

The EMP sets out how the club must manage and dispose of "hazardous" materials - namely spent bullet casings and lead residue. Spent casing must be collected, checked for any live rounds and placed in marked containers.

Gloves and masks must be worn when removing lead residue from bullet catchers. Lead residue must be placed in sealed and labelled containers. A log must also be kept of when these functions are carried out.

The plans also stipulate that the bullet casings and lead residue must be disposed of through an approved source with documentation, such as receipts. It has been verbally suggested that lead residue may require an EPA permit for disposal.

Now comes the crunch. We have significant quantities of both on hand. The club has approached numerous scrap metal dealers, who for various reasons will not accept the casings or the lead.

So, are there alternative ways to dispose of the scrap? Foundries and casting sculptors have said they don't use lead - only use copper or bronze.

So now comes the part where other rifle clubs may be able to help. Just how does your club dispose of your brass bullet casing and residue lead in an environmentally friendly way?

Any suggestions most welcome. Please email your suggestions to oakleighrifleclub@gmail.com

P.S. don't forget to enter our 2026 postal competition which is now open. At least your spent casings and lead won't wind up on our range. See the flyer earlier in this newsletter.

ARE YOUR MEMBERS GETTING OUR NEWSLETTERS?

Do you know any members not receiving this newsletter? Let us know at editor@trv.org.au.

If they use Gmail, then ask them to check their spam folders - because Gmail is pretty finnicky and it may be necessary to 'whitelist' the TRV emails.

NEWSLETTER SUBMISSIONS CLOSE 20 MARCH

You might have a report on an event, buy or sell some gear or have some tips, particularly for the newer shooters who want to head out to more competitions.

We're particularly keen to get good stories and articles on events your club might be hosting on the TRV calendar.

Whether it's a postal, online or prize meeting, we'd like to do our bit to help clubs keep those numbers up.

Sometimes shooters may not enter competitions because we haven't done enough to promote them - so here's your chance to let everyone know!

NOT SURE HOW TO SCORE CARDS?

If you're not quite sure how to score any of the cards used for TRV competitions - or even for club use, then our talented webmaster has come up with the solution.

He's now added a tool on our website that will show you how to score all of the cards we use.

The tool, called "How to Score your Target", covers air, prone and benchrest targets - and is very easy to use. It'll even provide decimal scores as well.

All you need to do is select the target you want to learn how to score - and move a slider from left to right to see how each shot may be scored.

You'll also notice the colour of the shot circle changing as it moves from one scoring zone to another.

Try it by clicking here.

HAVE YOU RENEWED?

With the new year now well under way, don't forget to renew your TRV membership.

Renewing is not only important to enable TRV to continue what it does, but it provides insurance coverage should something unfortunate happen.

If you haven't renewed, just ask your club secretary how to do it - or email our membership officer at membership@trv.org.au
